Workplace Investigations

Investigations can be essential to effectively manage complaints, grievances and misconduct in the workplace.

Proof Integrity Solutions provide the expertise and established processes to conduct your workplace investigations.

Proof Integrity Solutions deliver an impartial process to suit the requirements and budget of clients. We ensure procedural fairness, in line with client policies, legislation and best practice.

Workplace investigations often involve sensitive and complex matters. Poorly conducted investigations can lead to negative impacts with time consuming and costly consequences for employers.

Investigations conducted by Proof Integrity Solutions take the hassle out of the process, delivering the expertise needed to conduct investigations in a professional and timely manner, producing fair and meticulous reports to resolve workplace issues.

Investigations include: bullying, harassment, misconduct, fraud, discrimination, complaints and grievances.

Bullying in the workplace impacts individuals, workplace culture, morale, health and well being.

Failure to take action can lead to poor productivity, workers compensation claims, high staff turnover, and absenteeism.

WORKERS COMPENSATION INVESTIGATIONS

Proof Integrity Solutions undertake Workers Compensation Investigations.

If a workplace injury arises that requires investigation, you can request your insurer allocate the investigation to Proof Integrity Solutions. We will ensure the investigation is conducted to streamline the WorkCover process for your organisation.
